

SUBMISSIONS DUE

Friday, March 9, 10am-5pm

Works must be dropped off at the Halsey Institute (in Cato Center for the Arts, 161 Calhoun Street) during this time. You must be present with your artwork in order to sign off on the Conditions for Submitting contract.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

CofC Fall 2017/Spring 2018 Students including December 2018 graduates.

WHAT IS ELIGIBLE

Original artwork completed between April 2017 - March 2018. Students may submit up to three pieces per artist, per medium (prints, sculptures, etc.).

HOW TO REGISTER

Students must obtain yellow labels from the Studio Art Office (Simons Center, 4th Floor) or by downloading it from our website (<http://halsey.cofc.edu/uncategorized/young-contemporaries-submission-guidelines/>)

Fill out labels legibly and attach to the back of EVERY artwork submitted.

Indicate on the label if there are any special installation instructions.

Bring eligible work to the Halsey Institute on Friday, March 9, 10am-5pm. You must bring your own work yourself.

Oversized work must also be registered at this time, even if it will be delivered later. Indicate on the registration form if you have oversized work, where it is located, and attach a picture or photocopy of it.

ALL WORK MUST BE DRY!

IMPORTANT DATES

SUBMISSION DEADLINE

Friday March 9, 10am-5pm, Halsey Institute

JUROR'S LECTURE WITH AMY YOES

Wednesday, March 14, 6pm, Simons Room 309

Free and open to the public

ACCEPTED WORKS ANNOUNCED

Thursday, March 15, Halsey Institute

OPENING RECEPTION AND ARTIST AWARDS CEREMONY

Thursday, March 29, 5-7pm

Artist awards ceremony at 6pm

EXHIBITION DATES

March 29 - April 28, 2018

ARTIST TALKS

Saturday, April 7, 2pm, Halsey Institute

QUESTIONS?

Contact Bryan Granger, Manager of Exhibitions and Public Programs, at grangerbw@cofc.edu.

Young Contemporaries 2018

33rd Annual

